COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Ratings Forming Part of a Navigational Watch – RFPNW – Lookout Duties only:

This course is USCG approved. Students receive training in lookout duties, helm commands and duties of a mariner on a navigational watch. This course meets STCW 95 & USCG requirements for lookout duties only. Students will still need to complete STCW check-offs in our ship simulator lab in Ketchikan or aboard ship for helm commands and other requirements.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

The students must attend 100% of the class, complete the homework assignments, pass the written test with a 70% or better, pass the task performance exercises, and apply for the certification. The student shall be responsible for all transportation to class.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Space in the class is limited. Students will register the first day of class in Rm H101 – bring picture ID and writing materials (pencil, pen, & paper).
